

Case based discussion

18-11-2015

- A 23 year old male patient electrician by occupation came with

C/O Fall while working on a pole, following which he developed right , swollen ,painfull knee joint

h/o similar complaints in the past were present, involving same joint and thigh

- Family history of bleeding disorder in maternal grand father
- No history of alcohol abuse or taking any medications
- O/E except for swollen , tender knee joint rest of the examination was normal

Lab investigations

- CBP – normal
- Peripheral smear – normal
- Bleedin time – 2 min, clotting time – 10 min
- PT – 10 sec, APTT – 57 sec
- LFT - NORMAL

- DIAGNOSIS ?????

- HOW YOU APPROACH ?????

- HOW YOU MANAGE?????

- A 85 year old man presented with bruising of his hands, palmar and dorsal aspects of both hands , no other bleedin manifestations
- Past history of BPH, glaucoma
- Not taking antiplatelets, anticoagulants

- No family / personal history of bleeding disorder
- Examination was normal except for bruising in upperlimbs

Lab parameters

- CBP- normal
- LFT – NORMAL
- PT – 13 secs
- aPTT – 117 secs
- 1: 1 mixing assay unable to correct APTT

- Patient responded to oral PREDNISOLONE
- Diagnosis?????